Jenny — Class 1

Let's Go, Interviewer

Every great interview starts with someone who loves the questions.

Before We Begin

Nice to see you again!

How was your week?

Today's shape

Four questions, real answers — and then you take the interviewer's seat.

One promise

There are no wrong answers here — only your answers.

QUESTION 1

“What have you been into lately — a book, a writer, an album, anything?”

요즘 빠져 있는 것 — 책이든 작가든 음악이든, 뭐든 좋아요.

If you get stuck —

I've been really into ~ lately 요즘 ~에 푹 빠져 있어요

These days, I keep coming back to ~ 요즘 자꾸 ~로 돌아가게 돼요

words a novel · an essay collection · a poet · a certain writer · an album · a song

QUESTION 2

“What drew you to it?”

무엇이 당신을 그것으로 끌어당겼나요?

If you get stuck —

What drew me to it was ~ 저를 끌어당긴 건 ~였어요

I was drawn to the way ~ ~하는 방식에 끌렸어요

At first it was ~, but then ~ 처음엔 ~였는데, 그러다 ~

words the title · the first page · the voice · the mood · a friend's recommendation · pure chance

QUESTION 3

“Is there a part that stayed with you?”

마음에 남아 있는 부분이 있나요?

If you get stuck —

The part that stayed with me was ~ 마음에 남은 부분은 ~였어요

There's a line / scene where ~ ~하는 구절/장면이 있어요

I still remember the moment when ~ ~하던 순간이 아직도 기억나요 words a line · a scene · a melody · the ending · the way it describes ~

QUESTION 4

“Why do you think it stayed?”

왜 그게 남았을까요?

If you get stuck —

I think it's because ~ 아마~ 때문인 것 같아요

It made me think about ~ ~에 대해 생각하게 됐어요

It reminded me of ~ ~를 떠올리게 했어요

words my own experience · something I'd been feeling · a question I keep asking myself

ROUND 2

Your Turn to Ask

Now you're the interviewer. Ask Brian the same four questions — and follow wherever his answers go.

1 “What have you been into lately — a book, a writer, an album, anything?”

2 “What drew you to it?”

3 “Is there a part that stayed with you?”

4 “Why do you think it stayed?”

Before We Finish

Today's answers

Four questions, four real answers — and then you asked them yourself. That was an interview.

What comes next

Each class, we go deeper — new questions, new topics, your voice getting steadier.

Until then

Keep one thing in your pocket — a book, a song, a thought. Bring it next time.

Great first class, Jenny. See you next time!
