

DO ENGLISH WITH BRIAN

June — Three Conversations II

Rest · Envy · Data vs Body

Three questions. No right answers — just your thoughts, in English.

"Do we have to earn our rest — or is rest a right, not a reward?"

휴식은 자격을 얻어야 하는 걸까 — 보상이 아니라 권리일 수는 없을까?

IF THE TALK SLOWS DOWN — DIG DEEPER

- After a whole day of doing nothing, do you feel recharged — or guilty?
- Why does resting in Korea always seem to need an excuse?
- Is a guilty pleasure still a pleasure — or just guilt with extra steps?
- Researchers brag about being busy. Have you ever bragged about resting?

TOOLS — 막힐 때 잡는 표현

switch off (머리를 끄다) recharge (재충전하다) guilty pleasure (죄책감 들지만 좋은 것) burn out (번아웃되다) take it easy (쉬엄쉬엄 하다)

"There are few successes more unendurable than those of our close friends." — Alain de Botton 견디기 가장 힘든 성공은 가까운 친구의 성공이다 — 동의하나요 ?

IF THE TALK SLOWS DOWN — DIG DEEPER

- De Botton says we envy only our own reference group. Why doesn't a stranger's success sting?
- In academia, who is your reference group — labmates, journals, someone else? Did you choose it?
- Social media turned the whole world into our reference group. Are we unhappier for it?
- He also calls envy 'a covert guide to what we should try next.' Envy as a compass — do you buy it?

TOOLS — 막힐 때 잡는 표현

I can't help but compare (비교를 멈출 수 없다) measure yourself against ~ (~ 와 견주다) It stings. (쓰리다) turn ~ into fuel (연료로 바꾸다)
green with envy (몹시 부러운)

"When the data says you're fine, but your body says otherwise — which do you trust?"

데이터는 괜찮다는데 몸이 아니라고 말할 때 — 무엇을 믿어야 할까?

IF THE TALK SLOWS DOWN — DIG DEEPER

- Wearables, motion tracking, AI diagnosis — is more data always better care?
- Has your gut feeling ever beaten the numbers — in research, or in life?
- Athletes are trained to push through pain. Where should an expert draw the line?
- Could this happen in your ankle research — a patient the numbers miss?

TOOLS — 막힐 때 잡는 표현

gut feeling (직감) take ~ at face value (액면 그대로 믿다) there's more to it than the numbers (숫자가 다가 아니다) rule out (배제하다) listen to your body (몸의 신호를 듣다)
