June — Who We Let In

Three talks on people — the click, the circle, and this hour.

One rule: every question, both of us answer.

TALK 1

The Click

“Why do we click with some people — and not others?”

DIG DEEPER

Is chemistry instant, or does it grow on you?

What have first impressions gotten wrong for you?

Is romantic chemistry different from friendship chemistry — or the same thing?

The Circle

“Who gets to stay in your life?”

DIG DEEPER

What quietly ends a friendship for you?

Who fills you up, and who drains you?

Is it harder to make real friends now than at twenty?

TALK 3

Safe to Say

“Why is it sometimes easier to talk to someone you see once a week than to people you see every day?”

DIG DEEPER

What makes a conversation feel safe?

Do we talk differently in a second language — braver, or more careful?

What's a topic you can talk about here that doesn't come up anywhere else?
