June — First Impressions, Then What

Three talks — how we saw each other, what changed, and being known.

One rule: every question, both of us answer.

The First Version

“What did you actually think of me the first time we met?”

DIG DEEPER

What did you expect before we started?

Was there a moment you changed your mind?

What did I get wrong about you?

TOOLS · 막힐 때 잡는 표현 You came across as ~ (~한 사람처럼 보였어요) · I half expected ~ (~일 줄 알았어요) · What threw me off was ~ (의외였던 건 ~였어요) · It wasn't until ~ that I realized ~ (~하고 나서야 ~를 알았어요) · I had you down as ~ (~한 사람일 거라고 넘겨짚었어요)

What Changed

“When does a first impression stop being useful?”

DIG DEEPER

How long does it take you to really know someone?

Has anyone completely surprised you — in either direction?

Do people change, or do we just see more?

TOOLS · 막힐 때 잡는 표현 ~ only goes so far (~만으로는 한계가 있어요) · It tells you ~, but not ~ (~는 알려주지만 ~는 아니예요) · It takes ~ before you really ~ (정말 ~하기까지는 ~가 걸려요) · People tend to ~ until ~ (~하기 전까지는 대체로 ~해요) · The more I ~, the more ~ (~할수록 ~해져요)

Being Known

“Is it comfortable or scary when someone reads you accurately?”

DIG DEEPER

What do people usually get wrong about you?

Would you rather be misread — or not read at all?

What's something about you that takes a long time to show?

TOOLS · 막힐 때 잡는 표현 People assume I'm ~ when actually ~ (다들 제가 ~인 줄 아는데 사실은 ~예요) · I'd rather ~ than ~ (~하느니 ~하는 게 나아요) · There's a side of me that only ~ sees (~만 보는 제 모습이 있어요) · It takes a while before ~ shows (~는 드러나는 데 시간이 걸려요) · I don't mind ~, as long as ~ (~해도 괜찮아요, ~하기만 하면)

What We Saw Today

One answer that surprised you

오늘 서로의 답 중에 의외였던 것 하나씩.

One question we didn't finish

더 얘기하고 싶었던 질문 — 다음에 이어가요.

Your sentence of the day

오늘 나온 표현 중 가져갈 문장 하나.

See you next week, June.
