INYOUNG · CLASS 3

After the Journal Club — and the Music You Love

First hour: how it went, and how you'd do it again. Second hour: your songs, your show.

PART 1 · 1 of 3

Looking Back

Journal club, in your own words.

QUESTIONS

- How did it go overall?
- Which figure was the hardest to explain — and which part, specifically?
- What questions did you get?
- What was the most meaningful question someone asked?
- Which answer would you redo?
- What did your professor say afterwards?
- How would you evaluate your own talk, out of ten?

TOOLBOX

It went better than I expected, except ~

The part I struggled with was ~

Someone asked me ~, and I said ~

If I did it again, I'd ~

It went significantly better once ~

Do It Again

제일 어려웠던 그림 하나를 , 네 칸 틀로 다시 .

1 ASKED	2 DID	3 FOUND	4 SO WHAT
The question here is whether ___.	To test this, they ___.	What they found was ___.	This tells us ___.

INYOUNG SAYS

In figure 4, analysis with HMM method was the most difficult one to explain.
Because chatgpt explained this to me so I understood from the big picture but I didn't understand the details.
It is important to understand the method in details as we discussed about the methods during the open discussion.

First most important thing is that I read the paper earlier. And understand earlier in details.
And then I make myself familiar with the script. Or speaking about the subjects.

When the Question Comes

질문을 받았을 때의 첫마디 . Brian 이 journal club 처럼 물어요 .

FIRST MOVES

That's a great question.

I'm not sure, but my guess is ~

Let me go back to Figure ~

I'd have to check, but ~

The short answer is ~, and the longer answer is ~

BRIAN ASKS

- How big was the effect, really?
- Why that method and not another?
- What's the main limitation?
- Would this work in humans?
- What would you do next?

PART 2 · 4 of 4

The Lab Playlist

실험실에서 틀 음악 . 상황마다 한 곡 , 이유까지 . Brian 은 반대해요 .

When you need to focus

I usually listen calming song. Like rock ballad.

During long, repetitive experiments

Excited songs especially when I am doing my data analysis work which is very repetitive. I like Imagine dragons with surrounded sounds which it gives me more excitement and cheering me up

When you're writing a paper

Actually I haven’t yet wrote a paper. But if I write a paper, I think I won’t listen any songs.

When the experiment just failed

Anything is fine.

TOOLBOX

For ~, I need something ~ · Anything with lyrics is out when ~ · Is instrumental music sufficient for that?
