

D O E N G L I S H W I T H B R I A N

Hong — Class 7

The Nine, Continued

Eight questions left. We take them one by one — as far as the conversation goes.

Your Week, On Paper

1

Read it out loud

Your diary, your voice — original version first.

2

The fixes

Let's walk through what we changed, and why.

3

Say it again

Same story, corrected version — without looking if you can.

QUESTION 02

“Why do you want to work for us?”

GO DEEPER

What started all of this — was there a moment?

Why a foreign airline, and not a Korean one?

What does that life actually look like to you?

Imagine your first flight. What's the picture in your head?

QUESTION 03

“Tell me about a time you dealt with a difficult customer.”

GO DEEPER

Where were you working? Set the scene for me.

What did they say — and what did you say back?

How did it end?

Looking back, would you handle it the same way?

QUESTION 04

“Tell me about a time you worked in a team.”

GO DEEPER

What was the team, and what were you all doing?

What was your part in it?

What was the hardest thing about working together?

What made it work in the end?

Q U E S T I O N 05

“Tell me about a conflict with a colleague.”

GO DEEPER

What was the disagreement actually about?

What did you do — talk it out, wait, avoid it?

How were things between you afterward?

What did it teach you about working with people?

Q U E S T I O N 06

“How do you handle stress or pressure?”

GO DEEPER

When was the last time you felt real pressure?

What does stress feel like for you — body, mood, sleep?

What do you actually do to get through it?

Has that changed over the years?

QUESTION 07

“Tell me about a mistake you made.”

GO DEEPER

What was the mistake? Walk me through it.

Who noticed — and what happened next?

What did you do about it?

What changed after that?

QUESTION 08

“Have you worked with people from different cultures?”

GO DEEPER

Who have you met from a different culture?

What surprised you about them?

Was anything awkward or hard at first?

What did that experience change in you?

QUESTION 09

“Why is safety important?”

GO DEEPER

What does “safety” mean in everyday life, to you?

Have you ever seen a moment where safety really mattered?

Why do you think every airline asks this question?

A passenger won't listen to a safety instruction. What do you say?

Everything You Said Better Today

Let's open the board.

One pass through today's cards — read each one out loud, then once more without looking.

Before We Finish

Where we stopped

Which question did we reach today? The rest carry over to next class.

The one that stayed with you

Of everything we talked about today, which story felt the most like you?

Your diary

Same routine — bring your next entry, any topic you like.

Great work today, Hong. See you next class!